The ACM Special Interest Group on Embedded Systems (SIGBED) provides a focal point for all aspects of embedded computing systems, including both software and hardware. Embedded computing has come to be recognized as a key discipline which includes new computing and systems science foundations, new design technology, and new hardware and software frameworks. Members of SIGBED receive SIGBED Review Quarterly online and serve on the editorial board of ACM's publications, ACM Transactions on Embedded Computer Systems and ACM Transactions on Sensor Networks.

The Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) is an educational and scientific computing society which works to advance computing as a science and a profession. Benefits include subscriptions to Communications of the ACM, MemberNet, TechNews and CareerNews, full and unlimited access to online courses and books, discounts on conferences and the option to subscribe to the ACM Digital Library.
