

Recruit the Industry Elite!

The NEW AND IMPROVED ACM Career and Job Center is the perfect place to reach qualified candidates in the computing industry – the exact individuals you want to recruit to fill your organization’s open positions.

ACM is the world’s largest and most influential computing society – serving more than 100,000 student and professional members in the software, hardware, and IT sector – in both academia and industry. Our professional members rely on ACM Media’s Recruitment Group to provide them with the resources they need to advance their careers – while our student members look to us to provide them with career-related information they need to enter into today’s global technology job market.

Post your job on the ACM Career and Job Center or in the classified section of Communications of the ACM to reach both active and passive job seekers. Either way, you’re sure to attract top technology talent and reach the industry elite!
