

About ACM Inroads

ACM Inroads magazine (quarterly, print) and website (inroads.acm.org) serves professionals interested in advancing computing education on a global scale. The goal of the publication is to generate new inroads in the theory and practice of computing education and to share those discoveries by fostering dialogue, cooperation, and collaboration with educators worldwide.

Reach Educators Responsible for Advancing Computing Education.

Each issue of ACM Inroads presents the latest work, insights, and research in computing education as written by educators and professionals for educators. Authors represent an international community of scholars and professionals who reflect on and contribute to the computing profession. Every edition offers an array of thought-provoking commentaries from many leading luminaries together with a diverse collection of articles that examine in detail current research and practices within the computing community. The magazine is a member benefit of ACM's Special Interest Group on Computer Science Education (SIGCSE).
