

SIGCHI

Name and Mission:

SIGCHI: SIGCHI Computer-Human Interaction

The scope of the Special Interest Group on Computer-Human Interaction (SIGCHI) is the study of human factors in the human-computer interaction process, including research, design, development and evaluation of interactive computing systems.

Awards:

Award	Description
Lifetime Research Award	The CHI Lifetime Research Award is presented to individuals for outstanding contributions to the study of human-computer interaction. This award recognizes the very best, most fundamental and influential research contributions. It is awarded for a lifetime of innovation and leadership.
CHI Lifetime Service Award	The CHI Lifetime Service Award goes to individuals who have contributed to the growth of SIGCHI in a variety of capacities. This award is for extended services to the community at large over a number of years.
Lifetime Practice Award	The CHI Lifetime Practice Award is presented to individuals for outstanding contributions to the practice and understanding of human-computer interaction. This award recognizes the very best and most influential applications of human-computer interaction. It is awarded for a lifetime of innovation and leadership.
CHI Lifetime Achievement Award	...
	Awarded annually at the CHI conference to individuals for outstanding contributions to the study of human-computer interaction. This award recognizes the very best work in shaping the field and is awarded for a lifetime of innovation and leadership.
CHI Academy	...
	The CHI Academy is an honorary group of individuals who have made substantial contributions to the field of human-computer interaction.
CHI Social Impact Award	This award is given to individuals who promote the application of human-computer interaction research to pressing social needs.

Benefits:2011*Member Benefits provided to SIGCHI Members:

- Subscription to interactions magazine, published six times per year
- On-line access to the archive of the SIGCHI Bulletin
- Reduced registration at conferences sponsored and co-sponsored by SIGCHI
- Access to proceedings of SIGCHI-sponsored and co-sponsored conferences in the ACM Digital Library, as well as selected conference proceedings for other conferences held in-cooperation with SIGCHI

Community Benefits provided by SIGCHI:

- Sponsorship of the leading conferences in the field
 - Support for students through student volunteer and scholarship programs
 - A wide range of electronic forums including over a dozen popular e-mail lists on topics ranging from public policy to HCI for the Web
 - Support for activities worldwide, including over 65 chapters on 5 continents and programs to support HCI in developing countries
 - SIGCHI's awards program that recognizes social impact and outstanding contributions to research and practice in the field
 - SIGCHI's Web site and other on-line resources
 - Support for a variety of volunteer activities addressing issues ranging from public policy to education to accessibility
 - Cooperation with related Societies (International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP TC 13); Usability Professionals' Association (UPA))
