ACM-IMS Interdisciplinary Summit on the Foundations of Data Science

An interdisciplinary event bringing together researchers and practitioners to address deep learning, reinforcement learning, robustness, fairness, ethics and the future of data science.

June 15, 2019 | San Francisco, California

SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS
Computing and statistics underpin the rapid emergence of data science as a pivotal academic discipline. ACM, the Association for Computing Machinery, and IMS, the Institute of Mathematical Statistics, the two key academic organizations in these areas, have launched a new joint venture to propel data science and to engage and energize our communities to work together.

The Summit will bring together researchers and practitioners to address deep learning, reinforcement learning, robustness, fairness, ethics and the future of data science. This all-day event will be held on June 15, 2019 in San Francisco.
KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Jeff Dean
Google Senior Fellow and SVP, Research and Health.

Dean is an ACM Fellow and ACM Prize in Computing recipient, among other honors.

Daphne Koller
CEO and Founder, insitro, and co-founder of Coursera

Koller is the first recipient of the ACM Prize in Computing and a MacArthur Fellow, among other honors.
Deep Learning, Reinforcement Learning, and Role of Methods in Data Science
- Shirley Ho, Flatiron Institute
