The ACM Special Interest Group on Computer-Human Interaction (SIGCHI)'s scope consists of the study of the human-computer interaction process and includes research and development efforts leading to the design and evaluation of user interfaces. SIGCHI serves as a forum for the exchange of ideas among computer scientists, software engineers, psychologists, interaction designers, graphic designers, sociologists, and anthropologists. SIGCHI sponsors the annual CHI conference, co-sponsors additional conferences and workshops, and offers its members the "Member Plus" package. Interactions magazine and the CHI Bulletin newsletter are included with SIGCHI membership.

The Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) is an educational and scientific computing society which works to advance computing as a science and a profession. Benefits include subscriptions to Communications of the ACM, MemberNet, TechNews and CareerNews, full and unlimited access to online courses and books, discounts on conferences and the option to subscribe to the ACM Digital Library.
