The ACM Special Interest Group on Computer Science Education (SIGCSE) provides a forum for educators to discuss issues related to the development, implementation, and/or evaluation of computing programs, curricula, and courses, as well as syllabi, laboratories, and other elements of teaching and pedagogy. SIGCSE features an annual technical symposium and additional conferences on educational issues and research. Members receive an electronic quarterly newsletter (SIGCSE Bulletin) and an annual compilation of conference proceedings on CD. Members also receive ACM Inroads, a quarterly magazine.

The Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) is an educational and scientific computing society which works to advance computing as a science and a profession. Benefits include subscriptions to Communications of the ACM, MemberNet, TechNews and CareerNews, full and unlimited access to online courses and books, discounts on conferences and the option to subscribe to the ACM Digital Library.
